GENERAL INFORMATION

- * School year September 2015–May 16
- * Work language -Select-
- * Use of a car -Select-

Unless you are a late hire (i.e., if you're applying after February 28), you should always select the upcoming academic year.

This should be your first or predominant language. If you are an English speaker and will be working with students to help them improve their English, your work language is English.

EDUCATION

- * Name of the last secondary school attended 0 of 250
- * Municipality
- * School year -Select-
- * Name of the last postsecondary institution attended 0 of 250
- * Field of study

The coordinator will make every effort to accommodate your preferences. Please note that positions at the postsecondary level (CEGEP) in Quebec are only available to English language assistants.

English language assistants can work in Quebec or New Brunswick, while French language assistants can work in any province or territory in which English is the majority language.

The coordinator will evaluate these next responses, so here are some helpful tips to improve your chances:

- Be professional.
- Write in complete sentences.
- Try not to make any grammatical errors.
